❧ Officer Reports ❧

Seneschal Report

Greeting to the Barony of Ayreton!

It's official! The SCA Board of Directors has announced the formation of the Barony of Ayreton and the Cantons of Tree Girt Sea, Grey Gargoyles, Rokkehealden, Vanished Wood and Foxvale. By the time you read this, the candidates will likely have been selected by Their Royal Majesties and on September 11th, their investiture will take place.

We have much to be proud of and many to thank for helping to make this happen. While we've reached this significant milestone, there's still much to do. We have several initiatives under way in preparation for the Fox Hunt VI / Rose Tourney / Ayreton Investiture event and lots of help will be needed from everyone to make it a successful Kingdom event and Investiture. We have folks working on making pennants, list barriers, and more. If you have time during late August, please offer to help on these projects. We also have a lot of service opportunities at the event itself, if everyone gives an hour or two, then we will all have a great event.

Speaking of the event, it's a weekend camping event with a fabulous feast planned followed by a party where we'll have a chance to meet and greet with our new Baron and Baroness. You'll want to camp Saturday night so that you can participate in all the festivities.

Now, back on the topic of Baronial business, we have need of some people to step up and fill officer and deputy positions that are open or will be open soon. These are not difficult jobs! A little work here and there, when not spread among many people, becomes a lot of work for a few. Please help to keep this fun for everyone and share in the work that is required to make the SCA a fun organization to be involved with.

*In your service,
Richard de Scolay*

Minister of Arts and Science Report

Greetings from the MOAS!

The Ayreton Gift Basket project has been completed with the baskets presented to TRM at Simple Day. Many thanks to all who contributed.

The May A&S day was held by Foxvale. We need to start planning one for fall but the calendar is very full. Comments and suggestions are welcome.

I am still seeking input on favorite sources for supplies for your arts and sciences work. Please send the information to me including the vendor name and contact information as well as the supplies they offer.

Reminder we have an area Artisans list on the web site. You can check this to see who can be used as a resource in many areas. If there are additions to the list please forward that information to me as well.

Pennsic is coming up soon. For those who are going this is a great opportunity to learn at the Pennsic University classes. If you have the chance to learn something new and interesting please bring that information or skills back here and share at an A&S day or by teaching a class at one of our local events.

YIS, Nicholaa

The Purpose of the Ayreton Militia

by Serjeant Henry of Exeter

Why form a fighting unit for melee? This is a question that I have been asked in the last year or so in regards to the Ayreton Militia. There are many possible answers to this. Ask any number of fighters and you could get an equal number of answers. Below is the purpose of the Ayreton Militia as I see it. Many thanks to Sir Janos Varos from who I borrowed much of this.

First and foremost is to have fun and promote Ayreton fellowship. It is a great way to meet other fighters in the area, exchange ideas, and generate a feeling of belonging. A unit can help improve melee fighting skills such as command and control as well as giving an appreciation of medieval strategy and tactics.

A unit can also help improve the physical skills of those involved and promote increased visibility of its fighters and their skills.

Not everyone has to participate but we want to make it a fun and beneficial place for those that choose to join. We will not be adopting the style of any particular type of unit but instead will allow people to play with whatever weapon styles they choose, blending everyone into a unit capable of many different tasks.

Remember, "Our Honor is our own, none may carry it but ourselves".

Sgt Henry of Exeter
Commander, Ayreton Militia

A Baronial Wish List

by the Ayreton Baronial Candidates

The first slate of candidates for the position of Ayreton Baron and/or Baroness consisted of eight people, in four pairs. They are called the Ayreton Baronial Candidates, or ABCs for short. The eight ABCs have worked together with such tact and cooperation that they even wrote this article together to show how many good ideas have been suggested for the Barony.

1. One of the top wishes on everyone's list is heraldry! Ayreton has a really pretty device, with nice symbolism, too. These wishes include both grandiose and delicate uses of the heraldry. Here are some of the many examples of ways that Ayreton might use heraldry to attract attention.

- Banners for the Barony and for the Cantons. A set of matching banners for the cantons would be wonderful! Maybe something as nice as the silk ones for the 40-year event. Or one large oriflamme banner to carry on the field, containing the charges of the Barony and the Cantons.
- Banner stands, for those events that are indoors.
- Smaller pennons, of different sizes, for decorations, for marking the list ropes, or marking the check-in tables.
- Tablecloth for the head table with the Ayreton arms hanging down in front. It would be most visible from the front, so that the populace could see it.
- Cloaks for the Baron and Baroness with the Ayreton arms on the back and the five sets of canton arms along the hem.
- Citizens of Ayreton to wear Baronial colors and symbols proudly when there are opportunities for Baronial ceremony and procession.

2. Music for Ayreton.

- A special tune that we can use for Baronial processions. This could become the "theme music" for Ayreton.
- An Ayreton song. Maybe a marching song, or maybe a performance song, or both? It would be very cool to use a period melody, to which we could write additional verses to commemorate Ayreton triumphs.

3. Baronial thrones, as nice as we can make them, to show off the pride in our new Barony.

4. Pavilion/ sunshade/ suitable for an Ayreton presence at events

5. Travel kit, to carry the Baronial presence to far-away events. Compact versions of thrones, etc. It might be impractical to carry heavy carved wooden thrones and pavilions to Pennsic, for example, but still it would be nice to have some symbolism for Ayreton.

In addition to the pageantry of Ayreton, we would love to use the opportunity of our newly acquired Baronial status to highlight the talents and achievements of the citizens. Some ideas are:

- Creation of two Arts champions -- a Laurel champion of the Arts and Sciences and an "unbelt" champion (non-Laurel) to challenge the artisans of the area to do their best, and to promote the arts and sciences in the area
- Award or recognition for excellence in authenticity
- Creation of a special Baronial Cooking champion to highlight the richness of cooking talent in our area.

These ideas represent projects and recognition that the ABCs would be happy to support, but don't stop here! There are certainly many, many more great ideas for the new Barony of Ayreton! What would YOU like to see happen?

Written by (alphabetically): Fern, Gianetta, Hal, Henry, Juliana, Nadezda, Philip, Robyyan.

The Ayreton Angels

Now that most of us have a fairly good idea of availability at Pennsic, the Ayreton Angels are recruiting volunteers for the Pennsic War effort. Please note that there are volunteer opportunities for all levels of physical ability. It's not all about walking around the field yelling like fishwives. There are many "behind the scenes" activities that make our work on the field possible. And don't forget, men can be angels too!

We need volunteers for the following activities:

- Carrying supplies to the battlefield (starting about an hour before the first battle of the day).
- Carrying supplies back to camp (takes about an hour after the last battle of the day).
- Working our tent which includes making Gatorade, sanitizing hoses, serving as an information point, watching over items for fighters, etc., etc., etc.
- Using our wagon to transport empty jugs to the water station and bring back full jugs.
- And last, but not least, water bearing.

We have set out the battle schedule below. Please take a look and let us know if you are available for any (or all!) of the battles. Even if you only have an hour or two to spare we (and the fighters) would appreciate it.

In addition, here is a wish list of items to help us in our efforts:

- A gatorade cooler (the round kind)
- One box of large Ziploc bags
- Gatorade powder (any color but red or clear which are not allowed on the field)

- Silver duct tape (at least one roll)
- Four rolls of red duct tape
- Four yards of lacing (for armor repair)
- Two large bottles of Advil (no liquid gels please)
- Two large bags of pretzels
- One large jar of pickles
- Bootlaces
- New or used Swiss Army knives or leatherman tools

We are also happy to accept donations of money so we can purchase those items that aren't donated.

Schedule of Battles the Ayreton Angels Support:

Monday, August 9

10:00 Break the Siege Battle (Heavy)

2:00 Town Battle (Rapier)

Thursday, August 12

10:00 Bridge Battle (Heavy)

2:00 Plateau Battle (Rapier)

Friday, August 13

10:00 Field Battle (Heavy)

In addition to the above battles, we will be providing the Archery Field with at least one 5 gallon cooler of Gatorade per day. So be sure to look for it near the Marshall's tent when you go up to shoot for the populace war point.

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact either Anne or Jane (our emails are below). Jane will be leaving for Pennsic on Thursday, July 30. Anne will be leaving on Thursday, August 5. If you need to find us at Pennsic, we are camping with the Barony of Ayreton in the B02 block (look for the purple and gold round tent). And you can always find us in a pop up directly behind the big Midlands tent on the battlefield. Just look for the Ayreton banner and/or a lot of folks wearing orange bags and baldrics, etc. This goes not only for volunteers, but for anyone who still wants to donate to the war effort.

See you on the battlefield!

Anne and Jane

Middle Kingdom
Rose Tournament

Investiture of the Barony of Ayreton

Good gentles and ladies all, our annual hunt is fast approaching and this year we are doubly blessed that the Ladies of the Rose have elected to grace our hunt with their most glorious Tournament of the Rose and Their Royal Majesties Radagaisus and Ceinwen will seal the day's activities with the investiture of the Baron and Baroness of Ayreton.

In honour of the Ladies of the Rose, the fairest flowers of the realm, and the new Barony of Ayreton, we summon the newest fighters of the realm to rise early on the day and to take part in a novice tourney. This is your chance to show that whether new or seasoned the fire of the dragon burns brightly within all. The winners of this novice tourney will be given an opportunity to join the chosen champions of the Roses and take the field in the highlight of the days chivalric activities, the Tournament of the Rose!

In celebration of the days events, a feast among feasts is planned to delight the palate and excite the senses. Epulum Vulpes Rosa: a late roman culinary adventure. Guided by an infamous team of Ayreton's talented cooks, prepare to sample such delicacies as Fried "Fox Tongues", Spit-Roasted "Peacocks" and "Cranes", and an extravagant sampling of the freshest fruits and exotic delicacies from the farthest reaches of the Empire. Years from now, when stories of this feast are told, you will want to tell people you were there!

The celebration will continue into the night with bards, music and dancing.
