Greetings from the Baron and Baroness

It has been nearly two years since we've been a full barony and we have accomplished a lot during that time. In fact, we are one of the "go-to baronies" when stuff needs to happen in the kingdom. We were almost home to spring coronation next month, only if we just had a bit more space available at one area favorite site, or could have worked out another arrangement. We made a huge splash even before being a full barony in supplying other baronies with silk banners for 40 year, which still remain in use. We've supplied gift baskets for other kingdoms, gift banners, and scroll blanks. We've sent troops when needed - including archers, fencers, siege engineers, and heavy weapons fighters.

So as we embark on yet another year, it is no time to rest on our laurels as a group. While some individuals may need well deserved breaks, there is new blood that can refresh our ranks in these areas, be it in peaceful arts or martial arts.

Looking to this summer coming, there are many arenas in which to test our mettle.

Butts and Bales/Crystal Chamfron (Shattered Crystal) is June 2 with the Midlands Thrown Weapons Championship. Nearby Ravenslake, just to our north, will be co-hosting Border Skirmish on June 8-10. This is always a fun event, and will be at a new site, where we hope to have a baronial encampment. Ragnarok Rampage (Carraig Ban) is June 16 and will include authorizations to help us all get ready for Pennsic. This day should include Combat Archery authorizations, and since her Excellency hopes to round up members for her 'death squad', this might be a good opportunity for any who aspire to the team. Swordcliff's Day in the Park Demo is June 17 in Springfield and would be a great way to help out our southern neighbors, while also carefully watching those same southern baronies. After all, it is they who are casting covetous eyes upon us and whose tongues have begun to whisper in ears seeking allies to invade us with.

Yes, there are rumors of a war in the Midlands*. So we best prepare. It's a simple dispute. Their Excellencies of the Midlands have long held a non-aggression treaty with each other. Their Excellencies' Ayreton were waylaid on route to the designated place of signing this same treaty. (Mundane considerations got in the way of our attending). Our absence was taken in the worst possible way and these baronies have declared that they will make us sign the Treaty of Peace, with violence if necessary.

So if ever there is a time for unity amongst us, it is now. We need to secure our borders, and strengthen our skills. We will also seek allies where we can, as well as input from our own as to how to best prepare.**

In closing, we thank you for your past support, and look forward to that continued support.

THL Nadezda ze Zastrizl
Capt. Henry of Exeter
Baroness & Baron Ayreton

*Really, it's all in fun, and people seem to be getting really psyched about it.

**This could be a real fun event opportunity folks!

🌀 Creation of the Order of Atlas 🌀

Some service places a heavy burden upon those who give it, where many would come to fall under the weight of such a burden, a select few will rise to the challenge of that Service and these few are Atlas's among us.

They carry the greatest burdens, the heaviest weights and longest hours. They serve the dream and in doing so, they hold our world upon their shoulders.

It is one of the Great Pleasures of the Landed Nobility to create Baronial Orders and Awards, to recognize the talents, skills and service of the populace. As such, We are minded to create the Order of Atlas to recognize such excellent Service to this Barony and The Dream. While this carries no precedence throughout the realm it carries our respect and appreciation for the Service rendered.

Seneschal Report

Warm greetings unto the populace of Ayreton. Normally, I'd be writing something about surviving the harsh weather, but Mother Nature was actually kind to us this past winter. Instead, I hope you've been enjoying the unseasonably warm weather we've been having and have used it as an opportunity to spend more time outdoors with friends and loved ones. Springtime in the barony means that we're getting close to our annual officer elections. It is vitally important that we continue to share the burden of running the barony so that we continue to grow while retaining the experience. I thank you for the opportunity to serve as seneschal and look forward to finding new ways to help Ayreton flourish.

In service,
Mistress Sarafina Sinclair, Seneschal

In Service,
Mistress Margherita Alessia called Ghita, Exchequer

Pursuivant Report

Joyful Spring Tidings,

It has been another incredible quarter for the Barony. Their Excellencies have created a New Order. The Order of Atlas, this is a service award for the Barony. Their Excellencies, in their wisdom, bestowed this award upon those gentles who have served the Ayreton area in the offices of Mayor and later Seneschal of the incipient and eventual Barony.

It was my pleasure to read the Order into creation and it was my pleasure to read the premier recipients names into the record. You are welcome to read the Court Report which details the first recipients' names.

As we come to the end of my first year as your Baronial Pursuivant. I can't thank you all enough for your support and encouragement. I have been so honored to serve the Barony for the past year; I hope you will continue to allow me to serve you in this office.

I have recently submitted a call to the Populace seeking a Deputy to my office. The official printed announcement of the New Deputy to my office will come in the Summer Zephyr, so check for the report then.

Finally, I am proposing the creation of a new office to the Barony, one that would be a Special Deputy office to mine, that of Baronial Signet. A Baronial Signet would work closely with me and the Baronage to organize the creation of Scrolls for the Barony and when present during Baronial Courts, keep a record of the events in that court. This proposal will be made at the next Baronial Curia meeting held on April 29th, in the Canton of Rokkehealden.

Health and Happiness to each of you,

Herr Alexander Adelbrecht von Markelingen, APF
Baronial Pursuivant Ayreton

From the Webminister

Spring has sprung a little early, and things have grown a bit at our website. Visit and check out our new look.

We have a nice contrast of background and written word, consistency of style throughout the pages, and a calendar rework that makes it consistent to the Midrealm event calendar. We also have a new Excellencies page, and a slightly hidden Demo opportunities page.

Keep checking back as we are looking to add and improve many parts of the sight. Each page in the site should have a last updated label up top to inform you when changes have occurred.

I hope you come to enjoy the new look, and as always, feel free to contact me with changes you'd like to see on the site.

Yours in Service,
Lord Dunstan Bramblette
Web Minister

From the Chatelaine

Hello everyone! I took a brief hiatus after Twelfth Night due to an "attack of life" in my current dealings with "things modern." I won't go in to the details. However, those of you that knew things had happened were very supportive and caring.

To those of you whom I see at events, I want to be still 'out there' encouraging your participation in events, demos, and all other activities that the Barony has to offer. Remember you can always sign up for the Baronial yahogroup:www.ayreton@yahoogroups.com, and each canton also has a website and most have an e-list if you want news of who is doing what, where, and with whom. (Well, not specifically, but you get the general idea!)

Please feel free to e-mail me if you have any questions. You can also go to www.midrealm.org and check the calendar for the next event and plenty of other information.

Yours in Service to the SCA and the Dream
Lady Ardena Wildflower, Chatelaine

Dance Practices in the Northwest-Far Northwest suburbs

I have been trying to recruit a core group of people interested in renaissance dance in the northwest and far northwest suburbs, to attend possible practices on the first and third Monday evenings of each month. We need 6-8 people who would try to be there every meeting, both to have enough bodies for the dances and also to have continuity for the new attendees and those who can't attend as frequently. We have an experienced dance teacher willing to teach (THL Teleri) as well as other teachers who can teach simpler dances, like me.

We are likely to do this in the Elgin area due to the interest of some folks in that area but if we have enough interested dancers from another area, we can adjust this location. All would be welcome.

Please let me know if you would be interested in joining us and if you think you would be a regular attendee or an occasional one. I can be reached at mistressmargrett@ameritech.net or at 847-525-1997. Once we have enough people to have 6-8 regular attendees, we can start having practices.

Thanks,
Lady Margrett Norwoode

Terpsichore: Delight in Dancing—an event report:

On April 14, I had the sincere pleasure to experience again the delight in dancing as inspired by the muse Terpsichore: The Terpsichore at the Tower XVIII event in the Barony of Cynnabar. The trip began with acquiring my travel companions THL Teleri ferch Morgant ap Rhys and Lord Dunstan Bramblette. All three of us attended the event and all three of us taught dance classes at the event. The trip from the Chicago suburbs to Ann Arbor went smoothly, accompanied by conversation and music, and we eventually arrived. After a brief stop at the event site, we arrived at the home of our hosts, Lady Jadzia and Lord Aaron.

After unpacking, socializing and succumbing to the temptations of technology (booting up laptops to access the internet), we came to rest to prepare for the morning. In the morning, we dressed and traveled to the event site. THL Teleri volunteered to help judge at the Pentamere A&S faire and spent the morning reviewing a fantastic solo vocal performance that was thankfully repeated for the populace during the evening ball, so I was able to enjoy the beautiful performance as well. My class was at 11am, so I attended the 10am English Country Dance class and left a little early so I could go off and be nervous before mine . . .

Thanks to the influence and help of both Mistress Alina of Foxwood and THL Teleri and the help of Lord Dunstan and Lord Jody Raiford, I had the singular experience of teaching my first dance class ever. Yes, you've all come to expect my other classes and lectures, from Elizabethan culture to costuming to the medieval/renaissance origins of hypnosis. But I was never brave enough to teach dance despite having done English Country Dance since my Bristol Renaissance Faire days starting in 2005. THL Teleri had been encouraging me for some time to make the attempt and had even coached me through a dance reconstruction exercise, sending me to the Playford facsimiles and then discussing and adding to my findings. So when Mistress Alina asked me to teach beginner English Country Dance at Terpsichore this year, I decided to give it a try. THL Teleri was gracious enough to both give me permission to use her dance handouts for two of my dances and to review the handout I created for the third dance. Mistress Alina, Lord Dunstan and Lord Jody attended my class, helped form the dance sets and gave gentle hints when I forgot to mention a pertinent point during my teaching. I survived the experience and was even told later that participants thought I did well.

Once my class was over, I was able to enjoy taking other classes and the rest of my day. I did not attend Lord Dunstan's class due to my familiarity with his chosen dances but did attend THL Teleri's class because I had not learned her dances (My Lady Cullen and Fain I Would) as well as the joy and jealousy (Rostiboli Gioioso and Gelosia) of Lord Dunstan's dances. I was delighted to make the acquaintance of Mistress Tzipporah da Pesaro when I took her English Country Dance class. I greatly enjoyed her sense of humor and teaching style and hope to continue my friendship with her and to see her at future events elsewhere.

When classes were over for the day, a bunch of us went off for dinner at a fantastic Chinese buffet restaurant. After a great dinner and lots of stimulating conversation, we all returned to the event site to enjoy the evening ball, with live music directed by Lord Aaron Drummond and including Ayreton's own Master Robyyan. The ball was wonderful, the dessert revel was delicious, the pavilion cake unbelievably creative, the Iron Chef Peep entries amusing and the entire experience fantastic.

We went from the ball to the post-revel party hosted by Mistress Alina and Master Midair and had several more hours of great conversation and socializing. Then we went back to sleep and refresh ourselves for the trip back. We left at a fairly early hour because THL Teleri and I had hopes of attending a concert back in Chicago. The travel back was relatively uneventful and direct, with the exception of some rain en route and a wet packing adventure before leaving. We dropped off Lord Dunstan at home where we saw his lady Metylda, his dogs and his bees in his backyard.

Then THL Teleri and I drove up to Evanston where we had an amazing experience at the Newberry Consort concert at Northwestern University. We arrived in time for the pre-concert lecture which discussed both the dance and the music to come. The concert was Les Caractères de la Danse, which also included beautiful soprano solos by Ellen Hargis and costumed baroque dance done by Paige Whitley-Bauguess and Thomas Baird. THL Teleri and I had had the previous pleasure of attending both a baroque dance workshop and a baroque dance performance done by Paige Whitley-Bauguess at the Chicago Early Music Festival in 2010. This was an even better performance, because she and her partner interacted with each other and invested the dance with so much acting, character, intensity and emotion that I never knew what to watch and I know I missed things in the process: face, gestures, feet, floor patterns, costume, the Newberry Consort musicians (who contributed their own intensity and emotion to the music as well).

All in all, a great event spent with friends and traveling companions, followed by a great concert.

Court & Country's Third Anniversary

Court & Country has just celebrated its third birthday as a performing entity on April 4 and we would like to share our joy and thank you all for your support!

This medieval & renaissance vocal ensemble was first conceived at a Fiber Arts Night gathering in the northwest suburbs. Teleri, Tabitha & Arrienne first performed together at Stone Dog Inn on April 4, 2009, and called themselves Court & Country. After Stone Dog Inn, Margrett joined and we started having formal group rehearsals at Teleri's house in April 2009.

Over the last three years, we have regretfully parted ways with some of our members. However, we have also happily added new friends to our ensemble. Our current actively performing membership includes Teleri, Margrett, Margretha, Keith, Elizabeth, Adam and Beatrice.

We welcome more voices and encourage you to contact us at CourtAndCountry@gmail.com if you wish to explore singing medieval and renaissance music with us. We rehearse on Wednesday evenings in the northwest suburbs.

Our next planned performances will be at St. Cecilia at the Tower on May 12 in Ann Arbor, MI, the Janesville Renaissance Faire in Janesville, WI on May 19 & 20 and DuckKon science fiction convention on June 2 at Pheasant Run resort in St. Charles, IL.
