Email from Kingdom on June 24 (to @midrealm.org) Exchequers must take an online test in order to maintain warrant, no deadline, but 3 chances to take it

As a reminder everyone who is an officer has an "ayreton.office@midrealm.org email which they should be using

A&S—Kingdom wants everyone to report anything A&S—classes taught, demos done, etc on a reporting tool, MoAS's should report, individuals can report if they wish. Reporting tool is in the Midrealm Services Portal.

Chatelaine: Interactions with 2 potential new members.

Webminister: Making some changes to update the website. Email changes to official email.

Knight's Marshal: Fighting practice continues, Reports have been made. Zygar is looking for replacement?

Archery marshal: there's practice.

Herald: Ongoing project to rework baronial awards. Push to create more awards but fewer orders because awards can be given more than once. Outside consultants are helping. Hoping for more information about this at the September meeting. Hopefully. Open invitation for court herald help.

Rapier Marshal not here.

Thrown weapons not here

Chronicler: July issue of the Zephyr out next week. Send things.

SMO—Facebook initiative means everyone needs to pay attention to their emails—we may be getting reachouts from more new interested people

Baron & Baroness:

--Feast gear for royalty, to live in the group. Full set of feast gear for head table (8-12). Bids? One set from each canton? Would be paid for by the barony. Unless canton wants to take it on as a project (pay for, sponsor, gift to the barony)

--Combining events –canton and baronial event coordination in light of proposed changes to kingdom law

Proposal—the Barony co-sponsors any canton event, open for discussion among the cantons

Largesse Coordinator: Fern is largesse coordinator: Working with TE's to bring largesse for visiting royalty or
